

had whipped Jackson some of the clubs in this country would hang up so much money on a purse for him and me, the two of us, and we could not wait my meeting with Corbett or else fight them both. There would have been a barrel of yesterdays sent over here from England before you could have had a barrel here and I would have had the big end of it. So I figure I am $50,000 out on the fight."

Bob Fitzsimmons Surprised.

(BY ASSOCIATED PRESS.)
BALTIMORE, May 31.—Bob Fitzsimmons, champion middle-weight of the world, who is at the Monumental Theatre this week with his comedy and athletic combination, said of the result of the Jackson-Savin fight that he was just a little surprised. He had seen Jackson fight in Australia and thought him a good man, but after the Corbett-Jackson fight he had about given up hope. He said that Savin was a shade better, though he knew that Jackson was not in condition when he fought Corbett. The fight made Corbett up a public opinion. Fitzsimmons did not have a dollar bet on the fight.

JENNIE JUNE'S SON WEDS.

Takes for His Bride at Baltimore a Fellow-Student at Harvard.

(BY ASSOCIATED PRESS.)
BALTIMORE, May 31.—In Emanuel Protestant Episcopal Church yesterday Anna Louise, daughter of Mr. Arthur Emory, and Mr. Herbert David Clark, son of Mrs. Clark, of New York, known in the literary world as "Jennie June," were married. Immediately afterwards Mr. and Mrs. Clark took the train for New York.

Miss Mary Lee Wilkins attended the bride, and Mr. Louis Evans Shippens, of New York, acted as best man. After a short wedding trip the bride and groom will return to Cambridge, Mass., where she is a student at the Harvard College. They will keep house there until they have finished their studies.

Mr. and Mrs. Clark arrived in Baltimore Sunday and returned to New York almost immediately after her son's wedding.

A GANG OF BOY BURGLARS.

Steve Brodie's Nephew in the Crowd Corralled by Police.

There have been many petty burglaries in the Sixth Ward recently, and today the police of the Elizabeth street station have in hand a choice collection of burglars, none of them more than eighteen years old, and some still in knickerbockers. One of their gang, Charlie O'Connor, was discovered yesterday by T. D. Hildes, of Seichos & Brighter, hidden in the toy factory at 340 Broadway.

The boy was frightened by a pair of handcuffs and owned up that he and Johnny Brodie, a nephew of the bridge jumper, living at 123 Worth street; Frank Blucker, 85 Baxter street; Daniel Armitage, 147 Leonard street, and David and John Johnson, 101 Worth street, with several other lads, had organized the gang, and had planned with Blucker to break into his house and then make off with the $500.

In portion of the money, Fales said, was spent in the purchase of pistols and cartridges and in treating agit. The remainder, amounting to $100, was recovered.

Fates does not appear to realize the enormity of his crime. When led into the courtroom this morning he turned and said he pleaded that so much interest should be taken in his case. He took a seat beside his counsel, Mr. Hildes, and when asked if he had any friends he said, "None."

Present Judge Depue and his associates, Judges Kirkpatrick and Lewin, took their seats on the bench to receive him. Then came the trial of the boy. Mr. Hildes, on behalf of the people, moved the case.

Judge Henry acted permission to withdraw the boy from the jury, and then the court adjourned that he might be allowed to demur to the indictment, but his motion was overruled.

It took only a short time to select a jury, and then the trial began. The prosecutor examination of witnesses was begun.

A BOY MURDERER ON TRIAL.

Robert Fales Called Before the Bar of a Newark Court.

He Murdered and Robbed Shipping Clerk Haydon of $500.

(BY THE SPECIAL WRITER.)
NEWARK, May 31.—The room of the Essex County over and Terminus court in this city was crowded this morning when Robert Alden Fales, the fifteen-year-old murderer, was placed on trial for the killing of Shipping Clerk Thomas Haydon in the doorway of the Potter Bleaching Company on Mulberry Street on April 30 last. The indictment charges the boy with murder in the first degree.

ROBERT ALDEN FALES.

Fales had been employed in the Potter factory for four months previous to the murder. He is a slender youth, with light hair and a rather weak body. He lived with his widowed mother and a sister at 241 Center street, and had never been regarded as a vicious boy.

Two weeks before the tragedy he left the employ of the Potter Company without assigning any reason for so doing.

"Yesterday evening he was driving a team of horses and mares, and, at about six o'clock, when at one hundred and sixty-fourth street, tallied his team dashing along and tried to pass my brother's wagon, when he struck the horses and the team ran into the street, clearing the way, and an occupant of the tallied team snatched the whip from the driver and began to belabor the party.

"The fat of a young man called Higgins was beaten out of shape by the tallied driver.

"My brother, Tom, saw the tallied team run away, when he got out of his wagon, and, grasping the bridle of the tallied horses, said that he would not let go until his brother was safe again. The tallied team, however, was $800, but this was not discovered until the boys in my brother's wagon had let themselves loose from the ropes and other missiles upon the tallied team."

A policeman came along and arrested my brother and the other two, and they were held in custody until this morning.

Coroner Schultze sustained some scratch wounds, which are more painful than serious.

Who his friends were the coroner refused to say.

HELD UP CORONER SCHULZIE.

The Three Assailants Discharged by Justice Welde.

The Coroner's Coachman Lashed Them and They Stoned the Coach.

The three men who were locked in in the Morrisania police station over night in the carriage of Coroner Schultze and on Westchester ave., last night, were arraigned before Justice Welde in the Bronx court this morning.

Coroner Schultze, who was in the Morris Park races when the coachman says the men stopped the horses and lashed the carriage, shot the coachman, who was driving, and stoned the occupants of the carriage.

The prisoners gave their names as Andrew Crotty, 21, 8th street; Charles H. Heyman, of 544 East One Hundred and Forty-sixth street, and Frederick Schramm, of 741 East One Hundred and Forty-third street.

Neither Coroner Schultze nor any member of his carriage party appeared as defendant, but against these three the grand jury indicted them for the shooting of the coachman, of which they were found guilty.

Mr. Fassett, of course, represents Mr. Platt in the carrying out of this part of the prosecution, and the trial will be on Saturday and will be the coroner's trial.
